Critical Literacy

Underpinning assumption

All texts are constructed by people

Role of the author

- People make choices about who and/or what is included, so
- Some things and/or people may be excluded, and
- Choices are made about how things and/or people are represented

Role of the reader literacy?

- All readers have different knowledge and experiences that they bring to texts
- Readers will make sense of texts differently

Multiple readings

So what?

Why engage with critical influence

We can develop an awareness of how texts influence our thoughts and actions